Why Anniversary Sales?

The practical minded person is likely to ask why we conduct Anniversary Sales and what benefit the public derives from them. Our answer to this is that anniversaries are always celebrated as festive occasions by evidences of giving and good-will. So at each recurring anniversary we endeavor to give and gain your good-will in the giving.

Merchandise of the best values and newest and most approved styles is offered at prices from which all profits have been practically eliminated—prices which must, therefore, command the attention of the shopping public.
